

PO Box 959
Goshen, IN 46527-0959
Phone/Fax: 1-877-214-9838
Email: adnet@adnetonline.org
Website: www.adnetonline.org

Supportive Care Revisited Feedback Form

As ADNet continues to seek direction on the future of the “Supportive Care” model and booklet, your counsel and feedback is invited. Fill in the form below, save it as SCR Feedback XXX.doc (where XXX represents your initials) and send it to us at adnet@adnetonline.org or fax it to 1-877-214-9838 (toll free).

Name:

Phone:

Email:

What has been your experience with Supportive Care Groups? What form did they take? What were they called? Were they congregationally based or structured out of some other setting?

What roles are the following best suited to provide?

Families:

Congregations:

Disability service providers (Mennonite-related or otherwise):

The larger church (e.g. through ADNet)

The larger community

Continue on back side of this sheet

How well does Anabaptist/Mennonite theology (as expressed, for example, in the 1995 Confession of Faith) match the practice of the churches you know? Give examples. How can ADNet help churches in their teaching on mutual caring?

As “Supportive care in the congregation” goes out of print, what would you recommend?

- A reprint of the booklet A revised version
 Publication in some other format (e.g. as a PDF on Internet)
 Creation of supplementary materials (such as stories about its use)

Other or comments:

What are your ideas for funding a reprint/revision/supplement of “Supportive care in the congregation”?

- Grass-roots fundraising
 Special grant. Suggested source(s):
 Sale of materials
 Wider and/or more vigorous marketing

Suggestions or other ideas: